The justification set forth in the attached memorandum appears to warrant your granting the additional six months for retirement travel and shipment of HHE. I recommend your approval.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Administration

THROUGH : Director of Personnel

FROM : [REDACTED] Chief, European Division

SUBJECT : [REDACTED] - Extension of Time Limitation
For Retirement Travel and Shipment of HHE

1. [REDACTED] who retired on 30 November 1979, was granted an extension of the time limitation for retirement travel and shipment of household effects to 28 February 1981. In accordance with this 90-day extension, [REDACTED] instructed the [REDACTED] moving company in February to ship his HHE to Long Beach, California. He was recently advised by the moving company that he must be present to accept the shipment when it arrives in the United States; otherwise, the HHE would be placed in the General Cargo Warehouse until claimed. United Van Lines, the U.S. shipper, has advised that shipments held there are not well protected and additional expenses are incurred. [REDACTED] plans to instruct the [REDACTED] moving company to ship his HHE in June. This delay should cause it to arrive in California in August when he can personally accept delivery.

2. While [REDACTED] had made arrangements for shipment of his HHE in February, he personally was delayed from leaving [REDACTED] at that time when the Station requested that he assess and develop a [REDACTED]. He and his wife, [REDACTED] were essential in the development of [REDACTED]. For the continuation of this operation, they successfully set the stage for the future introduction of a recruit. He was chosen for this assignment due to his extensive knowledge of [REDACTED] its people and culture and for the non-threatening image he presented to the target. Also during his periodic social contact with the Station, he provided several other operational leads and internal targets. He was reimbursed for expenses only. [REDACTED] advises that this assignment concludes in June 1981 and there will be no further need for his services.

3. As [REDACTED] was detained in [REDACTED] for the convenience of the Government, it is requested that an additional 18 months be approved for shipment of his household effects and retirement travel.
